

Declaration Regarding Fake Profiles on Social Networks

October 30th, 2014

In light of the emergence of a number of fake profiles of mine on various social networks, I would like to emphasize that I make my comments and express my position online only through my personal website www.vassilev.bg.

At present, I am not registered on any social network. Any attempt by the creators of fake accounts to attribute me scandalous opinions or statements is a deliberate provocation, which aims at undermining the recovery of Corpbank AD.
