

Dependent Bulgarian Media Spread Lies Once Again

May 14th, 2015

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Once again, I would like to emphasize that I share my opinion publicly only via my personal website www.vassilev.bg.

On 14 May 2015, dependent Bulgarian media controlled by #KOI and #NyaKOI reached a new low of moral turpitude by spreading a letter “supposedly” written by me. While I am certainly not the author of this letter, I would like to stress that I do not communicate with media enforcing negligible ethical standards either.

It is also interesting to note that there were over 300 attempts to hack my personal site in the past few weeks. Obviously, after #KOI and #NyaKOI failed to prevent me from exposing facts they feel uncomfortable with, they tried to put words in my mouth that arranged them better.
