

Tzvetan Vassilev Gives Interview for the Leading Serbian Newspaper "Kurir"

August 4th, 2018

On 25 July 2018, the leading Serbian newspaper "Kurir" published an interview with Tzvetan Vassilev. Vassilev underscored that the political persecution against him and his family was organized by Bulgaria's General Prosecutor Sotir Tsatsarov who follows the orders of Bulgarian MP Delyan Peevski. "We have given Serbian authorities plenty of evidence that this is a case of political persecution. It is clear that there are deliberate violations of human rights and that there are no conditions for a fair trial in Bulgaria..." Vassilev emphasized. Moreover, he underlined that his strongest weapon was "the truth."

The main topic of the interview is the future of the glass-producing factory in Paracin which is currently under attack by those who organized the criminal corporate raid against Corpbank.
